Art Gallery Information Form

Now that you've researched your character from March (books one and two), it's time to observe everyone's posters. In a museum-like fashion, you will observe three fellow classmate's posters (but feel free to look at everyone's wonderful projects). While doing so, make sure you document three pieces of information from each poster you decide to record information from. Make sure your record whose poster you took down information from as well within the "Character Name" box. You cannot record information from your own poster or posters that cover the same person you did.

When you are done recording, you may make your way back to your seats and copy this information down on your character sheets you've been filling out while reading March. Once you've copied the information over, please hand this form in. I hope you've enjoyed this project!
