

Key:

Bubbles:

Yellow: I connect with this character

Green: I empathize with this character

Pink: I dislike this character

Blue: I don't feel any connection to this character

Lines:

Solid lines: These characters have a strong connection to one another.

Dashed lines: These characters do not have a strong connection with one another but have regular interaction with one another.

Dotted lines: These characters have poor rapport with one another and have a negatively-charged connection.

Numbers correspond with the legend and assign which explanation goes with which character

Name: William Lewandowski