

Name: _____

March Character Report Project Rubric

	Exemplary 30 Points	Proficient 20 Points	Developing 10 Points	Insufficient 0 Points
Sources	There are least three sources outside of the book. Each of the sources come from credible and trustworthy places.	There are less than three sources outside of the book. Each of the sources are credible and trustworthy.	There are one or two sources outside of the book. Some or all of the sources are not considered credible or trustworthy.	None of the sources are reliable or trustworthy or only the book is used.
Research	There are at least five facts and no more than one fact is demographic information. The facts presented are interesting and show who the person was and are not all easily-known facts.	There are two to four facts about the researched person, which includes one on their demographics. The facts presented are interesting and show who the person was but only scratch the surface.	There are less than three facts about the researched person, which includes one on their demographics. The facts presented are surface-level or easily-known and do not show who this person was.	There are only a couple facts on the researched person that give the audience no picture as to who this person was or what they did. Research is extremely minimal.
Works Cited	The Works Cited page is in MLA format with correct margins, line spacing, and indentation and contains all the necessary information. All citations can be found using the Works Cited page.	The Works Cited page is in MLA format with only some mistakes with margins, line spacing and/or indentation. Some necessary information is missing but ultimately, all sources can be found using the Works Cited page.	The Works Cited page is in MLA format with more than a few mistakes with margins, line spacing, and/or indentation. Necessary/crucial information is missing, and some sources cannot be found using the Works Cited page.	The Works Cited page is not recognizably MLA format with little to no accurate formatting. The necessary or crucial information needed is missing (or only URLs are listed). Many or all of the sources cannot be found by others using the Works Cited page.
Poster Presentation	This poster is visually pleasing and easy to read. Effort can be seen, and the poster is enjoyable for others to learn from.	This poster is visually pleasing and easy to read but could use some tidying, as it seems to be a little bit disorganized or cluttered. Effort can be seen, and the poster is enjoyable for others to learn from.	This poster is messy and disorganized and can be hard to read. Some further consideration could have been used while crafting and designing and is somewhat difficult to learn from.	This poster shows very little effort or creativity was used to produce it.
Art Gallery Info Form	The Art Gallery Information Form has all parts completed.	The Art Gallery Information Form has a majority of the parts filled out but could use a few more points.	Roughly half of the Art Gallery Information Form has been completed.	The Art Gallery Information Form was not filled out or less than half was completed.

Score: _____ / 150